Zusammen.Project is an ongoing collaboration between artists Merav Shinn Ben-Alon from Tel Aviv, Israel and Janine Gerber from Lübeck, Germany who grew up in former East Germany. The two met at an art residency in Latvia, an occasion that also offered something of a roots trip for Merav, which Janine joined. This exhibition presents the dialogue between their works.

The first part of the project was shown at the K70 Gallery in Lübeck, Germany in the joint exhibition Zusammen/Together in June 2018. The second part of the project, at Minshar Art Gallery, presents a new installation they made comprising Ben-Alon's large images and Gerber's paper objects.

Zusammen.Project touches on central themes relating to the so-called "third generation": the desire to move ahead without reckoning with the past, but also the need to inquire, learn and understand. The artistic acts in drawing, video and installation, which address contemporary gender issues, is their chosen site for dialogue that examines the wound despite the pain involved.

The project, which began in 2015 is ongoing and will be shown in various places worldwide. Each stage is a new link in the process. Besides exhibitions, the artists have an Instagram account with the handle @ZUSAMMEN.PROJECT where they share works from the process.
